ABHAYABALA PROJECT

Established in 1996, in Trivandrum, India with the support of Mr. Gopala B. Pillai, the founder and president of Wild Republic.

Abhayabala is a Hindi word, meaning fearless girls. The Abhayabala Project rescues poor, at risk, and abused girls and gives them a safe and loving home, free of fear, and full of joy.

Currently, 50 young girls receive proper shelter, nutrition, clothing, psychological counseling, schooling up to Plus 2 level, and vocational training. Books, uniforms, computers and other resources are provided. Their lives are further enriched with games, dancing, singing, martial arts, and athletics. A healthy development and a stable and secure future are realized through the help of teachers and staff.

"Safety and security don't just happen, they are the result of collective consensus and public investment. We owe our children, the most vulnerable citizens in our society, a life free of violence and fear."
- Nelson Mandela

When you buy Wild Republic products you give the girls of Abhayabala hope for a better future. Thank you for your support and please tell your customers about the Abhayabala Project!
