Luke's Toy Factory makes traditional toys for the 21st century.

Our stacking toys are a line of trucks with parts that mix and match. Their realistic designs appeal to kids 3 and up who have outgrown baby toys. They're made with an innovative new material that combines reclaimed wood fiber from furniture factories with clean plastic pellets. The colors are molded in, so there's no surface paint to flake off.

Our toys are made in the U.S.A., ensuring quality and a low carbon footprint.
