SILVER DOLPHIN BRINGS STAR WARS[™] TO A NEW GENERATION OF FANS WITH INTERACTIVE KITS

(January 2016) Silver Dolphin Books introduces a new line of interactive Star Wars[™] Builders ($24.99, 64 pages; Ages 6 and up) kits that will bring to life a galaxy far, far away for a new legion of fans. Each kit comes with everything needed to build 3-D models of popular droids and ships from both the original trilogy and the latest cinematic releases, as well as detailed guidebooks that give readers an in-depth look at the Star Wars[™] universe.

Star Wars[™] Builders: Droids (ISBN: 978-1-62686-725-3) comes with 33 model pieces to build two classic characters — C-3PO and R2-D2 — as well as newly beloved BB-8 from The Force Awakens. The 64-page book features detailed information about the many different types of droids throughout the galaxy, from astromech to protocol droids. Star Wars[™] Builders: Millennium Falcon (ISBN: 978-1-62686-742-6) brings to life the most famous ship in film history, Han Solo's Millennium Falcon. Build a 3-D version with the included 21 model pieces, and learn more about the ship's adventures and crew with the included guidebook. Finally, become a master starfighter pilot with Star Wars[™] Builders: Starfighters (ISBN: 978-1-62686-732-9). Used by both the Rebel and Imperial armies, these ships are central to every battle. Build your own X-wing and TIE fighter with the 31 model pieces included in the kit, and learn what makes them unique among the many starships in the galaxy.

Fans of all ages will delight in building these perfectly scaled models of iconic figures, as well as discovering new information about their role in the Star Wars[™] world.
